TAT'S MISSION

TAT stands committed to educate, equip, empower and mobilize members of key industries and agencies to combat human trafficking.

MOBILE ARMY

Professional drivers:

- Are the eyes and ears out on the roads
- Are trained to be vigilant/observant
- Intersect with victims
 - truck stops/parking lots
 - rest areas
 - city streets
 - gas stations
 - places of business
 - hotels/motels
 - bus terminals
 - on board

TAT'S GOALS

Saturate trucking, bus and energy industries with TAT materials.

Warning: Please do not approach traffickers. Allow law enforcement to deal with traffickers and recover victims. Approaching traffickers is not only dangerous for you and their victims but could lead to problems in the eventual prosecution of traffickers.

When calling law enforcement: In order to open an investigation on your tip, they need “actionable information.” This would include:

- Descriptions of cars or trucks (make, model, color, license plate, truck and/or USDOT number, etc.) and people (height, weight, hair color, eye color, age, etc.) Take a picture if you can.
- Specific times and dates (When did you see the event in question take place? What day was it?)
- Addresses and locations where suspicious activity took place
- When you contact law enforcement, tell them you suspect human trafficking, not prostitution.

Note: Human trafficking is a crime under federal law in both the U.S. and Canada. In the U.S., there is a lifetime ban on a CDL for any individual who uses their CMV to commit a felony involving human trafficking. Some states punish sex purchasers the same as sex traffickers, and most states have a buyer-applicable trafficking law that prohibits a mistake-of-age defense in prosecutions for buying a commercial sex act with any minor.

MAKE THE CALL, SAVE LIVES.

Human trafficking is modern-day slavery. It occurs in the U.S. and Canada when people are subject to forced labor or illegally bought and sold for commercial sex. A minor being sold for sex is a victim of human trafficking. The recruitment or purchase of victims may occur online, but survivors may be recovered in many locations, including truck stops, restaurants, rest areas, hotels, strip clubs, private homes, etc.

Truckers are the eyes and the ears of our nation's highways.
If you suspect someone could be a victim of human trafficking:

- 1 Call 911 if you're seeing a crime in progress. (See the back of this card for details to take note of when calling 911 or local law enforcement.)
- 2 Call the hotline to ascertain if you're witnessing human trafficking, to access services, make a report, or share incidents that have been reported to law enforcement.
- 3 Provide support based on your comfort level:
A. Tell management at location what you've seen.
B. Ask the victim if you can help and assess how.

Questions to Ask:

- Do you keep your own money? If not, who does?
- Do your parents/siblings/relatives know where you are? If not, why not?
- Is anyone hurting you?
- Are you or your family threatened? How?
- Can you come and go as you please?

Trafficking Red Flags to Look For:

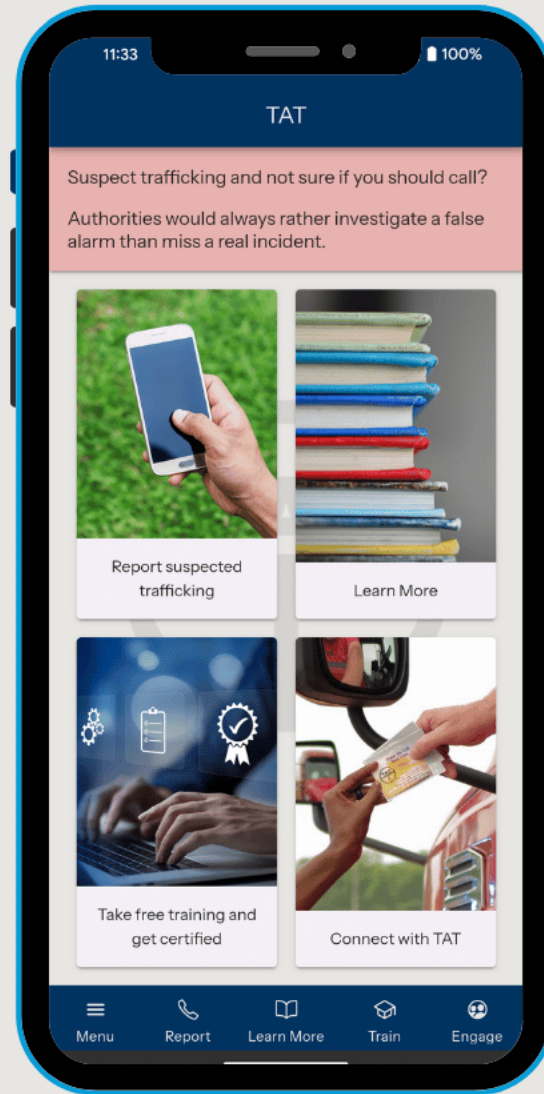

- Lack of knowledge of their whereabouts; not in control of ID/passport
- Restricted or controlled communication; not allowed to speak for self; being watched or followed
- Any mention of making a quota or having a pimp/daddy
- Signs of branding or tattooing of trafficker's name (often on the neck)
- A van, RV or vehicle with multiple women in a mainly male area and/or dropping women off and picking them up 15-20 minutes later
- Signs of bruising
